Ingredients

__ Leftovers from a Large Turkey, bones and all

__ A few Sprigs of Rosemary

__ A few Sprigs of Fresh Thyme

__ 1 Bunch of Fresh Parsley

__ 2 Tbsp of Olive Oil

__ 2 Onions, Quartered

__ 3 Large Carrots, cut into large chunks

__ 4 Stalks of Celery, cut into large Chunks

__ 2 Bay Leaves

__ 1 Tbsp of Black Pepper Corns

__ 16 cups of Water

__ Salt

1) In a large pot (one big enough to hold all of your ingredients) over medium high heat, add the oil and let it get hot, add the veggies and cook them for a few minutes or until they begin to develop some color.

2) Add the turkey carcass and all of the remaining ingredients, bring the mixture to a boil, reduce the heat to low and let it simmer for about 1-½ hours.

3) Allow the stock to cool completely, strain through a fine sieve, discard all the solids and pour the liquid into containers with a tight fitting lid.

4) Store in the fridge for up to a week or in the freezer for up to 3 months.
